

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Nonlinear image filter defined by local edge intensity and slope and is useful noise and artifact removal during image processing; applications include digital still cameras and video cameras.